WPSA Forum in conjunction with PIX, 11th May 2021

Brisbane Airport Conference Centre, Attwood Convention Centre & online

With the postponement of so many events in 2020 and 2021 the WPSA has combined with the PIX organizing committee to build a seminar day to bring our industry together in as many practical ways as possible.

For this we have arranged a live, in-person event held at both the Attwood Conventions Centre in Melbourne and the Brisbane Airport Convention Centre where meals snacks are provided, as well as an online event for those unable to make it to the venues.

We are pleased to announce the themes for the day will be Poultry Farming Sustainability and current topics in poultry health. All presentations will include egg and meat information with interesting speakers such as Dr. Dana Stanley from CQU, Dr. Peter Scott from Scolexia, Gill Gallaher from Devenish and others.

As we are required to allow for COVID safety indoors, registration is a must using the following link:
